Dallas Public Library to present Tuesdays@Central

New weekly program debuts Jan. 8 and will feature free programs and events

Dallas, TX - Tuesdays@Central, an exciting new weekly series of eclectic and engaging programs, will begin Jan. 8, 2008 at the Dallas Central Library, 1515 Young St. Held every Tuesday from 7 to 8 pm on the first floor, the series offers a wide variety of free, fun and educational programs.

“Tuesdays@Central will offer an exciting array of programs and activities, featuring local authors and musicians, cooking demonstrations, information on small businesses and entrepreneurship, starting your own container garden, parenting tips, urban living, and much more,” said Central Library Administrator Kjerstine Nielsen. “New programs designed to stimulate, educate and entertain will be presented every week.”

Other upcoming programs in the series will include the art of making rich chocolate truffles; instruction on how to play Chess; and how to make your home a sanctuary using the ancient Chinese practice of Feng Shui. For more information about Tuesdays@Central, go to www.dallaslibrary.org/tuesdays.htm or call (214) 670-1400.

The Dallas Public Library operates the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library, 1515 Young St., and 25 branch locations. A library card is free for any Dallas resident. For information on the many free programs and services available at the Dallas Public Library, visit: www.dallaslibrary.org.
